

ASP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does ASP stand for in safety professional certification?

- A) Associate Safety Professional
- B) Advanced Safety Practitioner
- C) American Safety Professional
- D) Accredited Safety Professional

2. Which hierarchy of controls is considered the most effective for workplace safety?

- A) Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- B) Elimination
- C) Administrative controls
- D) Engineering controls

3. What is the primary purpose of a Job Safety Analysis (JSA)?

- A) To determine employee wages
- B) To identify hazards and establish safe work procedures
- C) To measure productivity levels
- D) To evaluate employee performance

4. According to OSHA regulations, what is the permissible exposure limit (PEL) concept?

- A) Maximum time an employee can work per day
- B) Maximum concentration of a substance that workers can be exposed to
- C) Minimum safety training hours required
- D) Maximum weight an employee can lift

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More ASP Questions and Answers FREE, ASP Online Prep Training, ASP Exam, ASP Study Guide, ASP Flashcards, ASP Quizzes visit:

ASP Practice Test